

David Hutchinson

THE PERSON

David has worked in construction and project management for 25 years; working with large retail companies, private developers and major landlords such as British Land, Land Securities and Stadium Developments providing Planning, Health & Safety and CDM advice.

David has a straight forward approach to CDMC which combines his experience of Construction, Planning, Building Regulations and Project Management.

QUALIFICATIONS

BTEC in Building Construction, HTEC in Architectural Studies. NEBOSH Construction Certificate.

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

Senior Project Manager at CPMS providing project management services and CDM advice for varied retail projects of £100,000.00 to £2,500,000. With Clients such as Carpet right, Paul Simon out of town retailing and start-up companies Better (Bookmakers) and Shakeabout (milk shakes).

Prior to CPMS, Property Manager to First Choice Holidays, for the development of 180 High Street outlets and 80 concession units within Asda stores.

Other Project Management collaborations have been with Architectural and Design companies, dealing with construction and interior fit out contracts. Design companies such as Sutherland Smith who specialised in interior refurbishments and developed into full architectural projects that required CDM-C and construction experience.

David started Kingfield Shopfitters Ltd a shopfitting and joinery company which developed into a £1.8m pound business which he sold to pursue other interests